RESORTS

UNLOCK THE SECRETS OF THE BALEARICS

PORTO PETRO VILLAGE

A serene fishing village with a charming harbour and authentic ambience, Porto Petro lies just beyond the resort grounds. Admire colourful houses with traditional Mallorcan shutters, elegant yachts floating on the tranquil waters, and waterfront restaurants serving authentic local delicacies. Climb Porto Petro tower for unrivalled harbour views, and explore a village overflowing with artisanal crafts and independent boutiques.

PALMA DE MALLORCA

The island's capital is a cultural hub of fascinating local cuisine. Stroll through the quaint streets of Palma's Old Town, marvel at the stunning ancient archways and historic palaces, and refuel at a local tapas bar. For art enthusiasts, the Es Baluard features work by over 500 artists, and Joan Miro's studio offers remarkable city views.

DRACH CAVES

Traverse one of the largest subterranean lakes in the world in the enigmatic underground world of the Caves of Drach. The four interconnected caves – Black Cave, White Cave, Cave of Luis Salvador and Cave of the French – are 25 meters down and nearly 5km long. The water turns from turquoise to deep blue, reflecting the stunning stalactites.

SCENIC TRAIN TRIPS

The Soller Train is a scenic ride through the Sierra de Alfania mountains, offering dramatic vistas of rugged mountains, orange valleys and quaint hilltop villages. Soller, the route's final stop, is an idyllic town tucked into the mountains. Hop on the local tram and trundle through lush greenery to the quaint waterside town of Puerto de Soller.

CALA FIGUERA

A charming fishing village by a Y-shaped bay populated by locals and diverse wildlife, including 70 species of exotic birds that feed on the native fig trees and other fragrant flora, Cala Figuera is a designated 765-acre nature reserve where you can hike the trails shared with wild goats and rabbits.

PUERTO PORTALS

Mallorca is overflowing with picturesque towns to explore, from stunning hilltop villages flanked by the Sierra Tramuntana mountains to sleepy old fishing towns. Stroll through the medieval towns of Alcudia and Arta, bask in the old-world charm of hilltop Valldemossa and Deia, or take a scenic walk around the Roman ruins outside charming Pollensa.

LOCAL DRIVE ADVENTURE

Take the wheel of your complimentary MINI Countryman and discover the beauty of Mallorca at your own pace.
