MOUNT ATHOS

Mount Athos monastery, the medieval home of Byzantine Christian Orthodox culture, is a UNESCO World Heritage Site on the easternmost peninsula. The monastery and its people have heavily influenced the art, architecture, and way of life in the peninsula's local fishing communities, where locals and visitors still feast in harmony.

GEROVASSILIOU VINEYARDS & WINE MUSEUM

Discover more about the wines made in this region and their influence on its culture at the Gerovassiliou Wine Museum. Centuries-old stories unfold through the museum's main collections and you can explore the rolling vineyards themselves.

NIKITI TRADITIONAL VILLAGE

One of the most picturesque villages in Halkidiki, the medieval stone houses of Nikiti are filled with traditional taverns and curving cobblestone streets. Its quaint alleyways harbour fascinating Macedonian history and the remains of an early 5th-century Byzantine church.

PARTHENON VILLAGE

Resting on Mount Itamos, the historical Parthenon Village is an ancient settlement dating back millennia. Once abandoned, the old Macedonian stone houses have since been restored, as has the original character of the village, much to the delight of visitors seeking an authentic Old World experience. The village is home to a folklore museum and a brewery of the local brandy, tsipouro.
